

OPEN • SAFE • COVID-19 Secure

Across the UK we are facing lockdown rules. The latest being England going into a month-long lockdown as of Thursday 5th November. Under these rules Atlas Bathrooms & Tiles is classified an essential service so we will remain open.

The KBSA has now confirmed that Kitchen & Bathroom Showrooms can remain open when the new lockdown comes into force as they are considered to be essential retail.

Atlas Bathrooms & Tiles is committed to safeguarding everyone that works at and visits our showrooms for example:

- Appointments system is in place to limit the numbers of people in the showrooms at any one time.
- Sanitising stations are available at various points around our showrooms for all staff and customers and hand washing facilities are available to all.
- Large screens are in place at all desks in our showrooms and in our trade counters to protect customers and staff.
- Social distancing is encouraged at all times with signage to remind all staff and customers.
- Face coverings must be worn by staff and customers entering the premises
- Contactless payment is encouraged where possible.
